

WEB RESOURCES FOR RECRUITING

Several websites provide information related to recruitment of VISTAs, including:

The VISTA Campus offers useful information and an easy way to connect with and share ideas with fellow supervisors, including around recruitment.

www.americorps.gov, the official website of the AmeriCorps programs, offers information directed at sponsor and grantee organizations and individuals interested in national service. Links to eGrants (for VISTA Sponsors) and the My AmeriCorps Portal (for aspiring, current, and former VISTA members) are available at this website.

www.nationalservice.gov, the official website of the Corporation for National and Community Service, provides information to help the public understand the mission of the Corporation. It includes information on all the national service programs, including legislative updates, program directories, forms, and press releases.

www.pubs.nationalservice.gov is a Corporation for National and Community Service website that helps you search for and order Corporation materials at no charge.

www.nationalservice.gov/resources, the website for the Knowledge Network, is a content library for national-service participants and programs. You can subscribe to the Knowledge Network's listservs or download service-oriented guides and other resources.

VISTA Forums on the VISTA Campus is where AmeriCorps VISTA members, leaders, and alumni can discuss critical issues, examine new ideas, solve problems, exchange promising practices and share resources.

Other useful websites include:

www.change.org transforms social activism by serving as the central platform that connects like-minded people, whatever their interests, and enables them to exchange information, share ideas, and collectively act to address the issues they care about.

www.idealists.org is an interactive site where people and organizations can exchange resources and ideas, locate opportunities, and find supporters.
